

COMMISSIONER PROFILE

Lindsay Ellis has been a Superior Court Commissioner since her appointment in January 1990. She is currently assigned to the Criminal Department, where she has worked previously. She also has served in the Civil, Domestic Relations and Juvenile Court Departments. Commissioner Ellis received a law degree in 1977 from the Arizona State University College of law. She received a Bachelor of Arts degree in archeology and anthropology in 1974 from Arizona State University.

